PREFACE

Specific interest in compiling the Schnorf descendants came while trying to trace the ancestry of Narcissus Schnorf, wife of Richard Corbin, settlers in Coles County, Illinois. Since so little has ever been written of the Schnorf family, it is hoped that this "beginning" may in the future stir someone on to a more-complete history.

Time and lack of funds prevents me from making an elaborate publication...but, I thought, why deny the interested ones from knowing what I might share with them? So, here it is, as best I have it. It might be added that although this is far from complete, the data herein has been carefully used, and is factual, not traditional, with every pain exercised to assure it's validity.

This has been a family project; no personal gain intended. I ask nothing in return. Mrs. Grace Myers Schnorf furnished the postage for mailing; I thank her for this kindness. The hours spent in compiling I can not nor do not want to count. It was fun, and I hope it may bring you pleasure.

I would like to dedicate this to a great-granddaughter of Eliza Schnorf Kinder, the eldest daughter of Jacob Schnorf, Jr. She is Mrs. Laura G. Hose, 206 Morgan St. Crawfordsville, Indiana, who in her 88th year kindly shared information with us in regard to Jacob Schnorf, Jr's descendants which otherwise would have been forever lost. She further sent the ancestry of Rachel Cook, and that of Jacob Schnorf's mother, Mary Kinder.

Any data, additions and/or corrections, now or in the future, would be gratefully received by the compiler.

The Compiler: Erik P. Conard, b. 28 Apr 1936, Wichita, Kan., son of Carl Kennedy Conard and Evelyn Armstrong, is a great-great-grandson of Richard & Narcissus (Schnorf) Corbin, who at this writing, have 424 descendants. The compiler spent every summer in his boyhood, south of Charleston, Ill., with grandparents, the late Arthur Joseph & Nellie Frances (Corbin) Armstrong. Education: Lyons (Kan.) High '54, Hutchinson (Kan.) Jr. Coll., Univ. of Kans., KSTC, Emporia, B.S. '60. Grad Work, Emporia, Utah State U., Logan. Associations: Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, Gamma-Phi & Alpha-Phi Chapters; (Field Representative '57-59; Province Staff '60-'62; Survey Com'mn '60-current; Founder, Emporia Alumni Chapter; Member, Alpha-Lambda (Kans State U) Board of Control '60-2; Resident Field Supervisor, '59-60), Fraternal Order of Eagles, Emporia #2587; B.P.O. Elks, Manhattan #1185; Manhattan Genealogical Associates, Chairman '62, Editor, '62. THE SCHNORF FAMILY

This seldom read-about family, according to tradition, was Dutch in origin, and it is said that the immigrant was a farmer on the "River Rhine". There is evidence of a Schnorf family in Switzerland, but relationship has not been proven... Some of the common known spellings of the name are: Snuff, Schnorff, Snorf, Schnuff, Schnupf, Schnoff and Schnorf. The original spelling of the name is not known by this writer.

Possible immigrants of this family have been narrowed to three persons: Johann Casper Schnorf, who arrived from Rotterdam, 24 September 1758, on the "Meramec", Johannes and Johannes Jacob Schnorss, 1 November 1757, on the ship "Chance", Charles Smith, Captain, from Rotterdam & Coes, Holland, to Philadelphia, 97 persons on ship. On 28 August 1751, a Philip Kinder arrived from Rotterdam on the ship "Anderson", with 274 passengers. His daughter, Mary, born 1750, evidently in the U.S., married Jacob Schnorf, our earliest known ancestor and subject.

It is estimated that Jacob Schnorf was born around 1750. It has never been established whether he was born in America or was foreign-born. He found Jacob Schnorf owning 400 acres on the Monongahela River, including his original settlement. Some of this now lies, it is said, in West Virginia. Estimates say the land was near Westburg and Fredricktown, near a creek called "Fish Pot Run". Another description was "two and one-half miles south of Scallsville, just south of U. S. 40".

Although no one has successfully proven Revolutionary Service for Jacob Schnorf, recent research has stated he served under Captain Robert Sweney's Company, 5th Battalion, Washington County, Penna., beginning about 23 April 1782.

Further assumption leads us to think that Jacob Schnorf and Mary Kinder were married in Washington County, Pennsylvania, about 1771 or 1772. Their family record is as follows:

1. Mary, born 21/7/5, married James Anderson.
2. Rosannah, born 20 June 1775, died 10 October 1858, married Peter Winterrowd. Their record has been preserved.
3. John, born 21/7/75, died 21 September 1837, married Elizabeth Winterrowd.
4. Catherine, born 1777, died 1857, married William Coffing; Their record has been preserved.
5. Abraham married 20 November 1809, Mary "Polly" Branch.
6. Jacob, Jr., born 13 June 1782, died 11 November 1862, married 9 February 1806, Rachel Cook.
7. Isaac, born 1785, died July 1828, married 15 December 1814, Sarah Riggs.
8. Sarah "Sally" married James Boys.
9. Margaret married 26 October 1815, Mathias Corwin. Their record has been preserved.
10. George married 4 November 1817, Koziah Corwin.

The Winterrowd's were brother and sister, children of John Peter & Anna Maria (Michael) Winterrowd. Other spellings are Wintrow, Wintroe, and Winterrowd. The Corwins, brother and sister, were children of Joseph Corwin.

On 1 March 1803, Jacob and Mary sold their land, Jacob signing in German, to Robert Schooley, apparently prior to moving to Ohio. We next hear of the family as residents of Warren County, Ohio. Jacob had a land patent from the Cincinnati Land Office, 7 October 1813, for 1/2 section in Deerfield Twp., Warren County, North 1/2 of Section 20 on the Hamilton County line, also near Butler County. In 1816, part of this land was sold to son Isaac. Jacob Schnorf lived until 1827, as his will was probated on 26 June 1827; his widow lived until 1832. They were buried on their farm. Several years ago, tenants on the farm, it was discovered, had taken up all the gravestones, and were using them as door steps. No comment. Unless their missing family Bible is located, the dates shall be forever lost.

Of interest, Jacob's son, Jacob, Jr., married Rachel Cook, daughter of Abel & Catherine (Bailey) Cook, all three being members of the famed Stites Expedition to the Miami Valley in 1788, the first white settlers of that region. Abel Cook was scalped by Kickapoo Indians, opposite the present site of Cincinnati, in a spot called Covalt Station on 19 March 1791, after having taken his gun to Columbia for repairs. The neighbors buried him the following day. The widow, hearing the commotion, hid in the thickets with Rachel and infant, Abel, Jr., and later gave the warning to the remainder of the populace. This story has been passed down thru the generations of all his descendants, and is documented by no less than three Historical Societies.

Furthermore, years later, his scalp was returned to Catherine, who remarried, to a William Digby, and she recognized it by a peculiar mark. (Tippecanoe Co., Indiana Historical Society authenticated this, as Catherine Bailey Cook Digby died in Lafayette, Ind., a town which her son, Wm. Digby, Jr. founded, in 1849, aged 96 years). Abel Cook was a resident from Washington Co., Pa. and a Revolutionary War veteran, from Cap't. Millar's Company.

Since we are dealing with the Schnorf family, I shall not carry down the daughters' record past their marriage, due to lack of time and space, as well as expense. However, in every possible case, I have preserved their records as far as I have data.

1. Peter, b. 14 Jan 1801, died 18 Mar 1868, m. 25 Mar 1824, Martha "Mary" Cartwright, 2nd 20 Apr 1836, Sarah Concannon.

- John & Elizabeth buried Verona Cem., near Red Lion, Ohio.

Abraham Schnorf, 2nd son, had children, names not known. In the 1820 Census of Warren Co., Ohio: A. Snuff. 1 male under 10, 3 females under 10 years, plus Abraham and wife, "Polly" Branch.

Jacob Schnorf, Jr., 3rd son, served in the War of 1812 from 27 April 1812 on, in Cap't. Robert Hays' Co. of Butler Co., Ohio. Name spelled "Snuff". To further relate this unproven service, the History of Parke, Fountain and Montgomery Counties, Indiana, Fountain County Section, under the biography of Benjamin F. Crane, states... "his grandfather, Jonathan Crane, served throughout the Revolution, and his grandfather Jacob Schnorf, was a soldier in the later years of that struggle." Jacob and Rachel are buried in the Oak Hill Cemetery, Crawfordsville, Ind. Their record..most children married in Butler Co., Ohio:
